

Department Of Life Long Learning and Extension (DLLE)

This programme aimed at promoting human development, exchange of ideas, innovations and research and providing an opportunity to develop professionalism and leadership qualities, in short, 'to reach the unreached'.

Hundred students registered in the very first year of the inception of this programme. We undertook Career Skills, Status of Woman Survey (SWS) and Information and Technology Online Programme (ITP) as this year's projects, which were divided among the 100 students as per their choice:

1. SWS- 25 students
2. SWS- 30 students
3. Career Skills- 19 students
4. ITP- 26 students

The SWS Projects, ITP Project and Career Skills Projects were guided and analysed by Prof. Sangita Das, Prof. Sagar Thakkar and Prof. Namrataa Srivastav respectively. The Student Managers played an able role in coordinating and organising the implementation of this Programme.

The First term Training Programme for Extension work was held on 27th July 2011 at K.E.T.'s V.G.
