

MLIS 2009
MLISc. - April 2009

V

Con. 1389-09.

V

BB.

(3 Hours)

[Total Marks

- N.B. — (1) Attempt any five questions.
(2) All questions carry equal marks. (20 marks each)

1. 'Research is a cyclic process.' Explain.
2. Define hypothesis and describe its role in research.
3. What is sampling? Differentiate between probabilistic and non-probabilistic sampling with examples.
4. Explain the advantages and disadvantages of historical method in Library and Inform Science Research.
5. Compare questionnaire and interview as tools of research stressing their import in research.
6. Distinguish between any two :—
 - (a) Participant and non-participant observation
 - (b) Literature search and literature review
 - (c) Qualitative and quantitative research
 - (d) Pie Chart and Bar Chart.
7. Write short notes on any four :—
 - (a) Content Analysis
 - (b) Zipf's Law
 - (c) Webometrics
 - (d) Style Manual
 - (e) Case Study
 - (f) Data Analysis.

